

Summer Strike Of Half-Million Workers Looms

By NORMAN WALKER
WASHINGTON (AP) — Well over a half-million workers are poised for a possible mid-summer series of strikes across the nation. They include about 100,000 workers in the vital copper-producing industry and more than 5,000 at the Oak Ridge, Tenn., atomic energy plants.

Many of the unions involved are seeking pay boosts like those earlier this year in the steel and auto industries. Pay increases have been running in the neighborhood of 5 to 10 cents an hour.

Respite Runs Out
Probably the most imminent strike threat is at the Oak Ridge atomic plants, where AFL workers are asking higher wages and other benefits. One of the installations threatened with strike action is the atomic laboratory which builds experimental projects for scientists.

The federal mediation and conciliation service won a 10-day postponement of a threatened strike at Oak Ridge but the respite period runs out at midnight Sunday.

Nearly 200,000 telephone workers across the nation are talking strike. The CIO's Communications Workers Union says it has not set any date as yet for a walkout. But phone exchange workers in Los Angeles, several cities in Indiana, and in Maryland and Virginia have staged "quickie" walkouts of several days each.

Unions Ene Pressure
The International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers (IUMS) recently announced that workers voted 9-1 for strike action.

Building and construction workers in several important areas, including 200,000 in the New York City area, are talking of walkouts, too.

Several firms in the farm equipment industry are being pressed by unions to match the increases given earlier in the auto industry.

State Pays Off On Tax Diversion

LANSING (AP) — The state was preparing today to pour out nearly $33,000,000 to local units of government.

Aud. Gen. John B. Martin said payments of $11,979,376 in sales tax diversion distribution for the last quarter of the past fiscal year would go out to the cities, villages and townships at the rate of $1.88 per capita—the biggest payment in the history of the sales tax.

The Department of Public Instruction prepared to distribute an equal amount of sales tax money to the school districts at the rate of $7.55 per school census child.

Martin said that a $16,000,000 intangibles tax collection in the fiscal year closing June 30 would permit the state to distribute $9,500,000 to local communities, pay $4,000,000 on the mental hospital bond issue and have $2,000,000 left to apply to the state's general fund deficit.

Legless Lapeer Man Gets Defense Medal

LAPEER (AP) — A legless, bedfast man has received a medal for his civil defense work in 24-hour observing of the skies.

William Swayze of Lapeer got the award Wednesday from the state director of civil defense, Brig. Gen. Lester J. Maitland.

Swayze's legs were amputated in 1950 after a Flint factory accident crushed them. He watched the skies for enemy planes and reported by telephone to civil defense centers.

SNAKE CUTS POWER

EUFULA, Okla. (AP) — A chicken snake barbed itself for nearly two hours and knocked out electrical power to two eastern Oklahoma towns Wednesday night when he wrapped his 4½-foot length around a 68,000-volt transformer.

Service was restored to Eufaula and Checotah when crews located the trouble at a substation north of here.

South Koreans Beaten Back In Attack On Hill

SEOUL (AP)—South Korean infantrymen fought with bayonets, knives and rifle butts to the top of strategic Sam Hyon Hill in central Korea today but were beaten off in a savage 5½-hour fight with a reinforced Chinese regiment.

North of Sam Hyon, Allied air and ground observers reported sighting Chinese troops. Allied big guns shelled two separate Red battalions massing north of the battle line, plus a concentration of about 40 Red trucks and six tanks.

Rugged Sam Hyon Hill overlooks important territory on the Kumsong Bulge line, which the South Koreans established after being forced back last week by the mightiest Red offensive in two years.

The action, described by American advisers to the ROKs as "intense and close range," was one of three fierce battles along the relatively quiet battlefield, in addition to more than 40 patrol-size fights and small Red jabs.

Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, commander of the U. S. 8th Army, toured the critical central front.

Why Batory Captain Fleed 3 Sets of Red Spies Ran Ship, Leaving Skipper as Just 'Driver'

Capt. Jan Cwiklinski, master of the Polish liner Batory, on which Gerhart Eisler escaped from the United States, recently sought and obtained political asylum in Great Britain. This is the second of a series of articles by him on conditions under the Communist regime which caused him to walk off his ship at Newcastle-on-Tyne, where it was being overhauled.

By Capt. Jan Cwiklinski
LONDON.

Ever since Eisler escaped from New York aboard my ship, the Batory and I were hounded by trouble, as if Eisler had put a curse upon us.

In March, 1950, we were given another black eye in the West when the Batory was elected to repatriate Valentine Gubitchev, Soviet diplomat attached to the United Nations in New York, who was expelled from the United States after being found guilty of espionage with Judith Coplon.

Five months later, on another trip, William Jesse Newton crash landed his seaplane right alongside us when we were seventy miles out of New York. Soon after we hauled him and his plane aboard, we discovered another stowaway—Howard Campbell.

I deposited these two Americans and the plane in England and proceeded to Gdynia, where

I anticipated more suspicion and difficulty. As soon as we tied up, I was ordered to report to the Foreign Office in Warsaw. Officials of the shipping line in Gdynia wrote me off as liquidated and began looking for a new captain to take charge of the Batory.

Warned Of Questioning
But all the Foreign Office wanted to tell me was: "You will be interrogated closely by the American authorities when you return to New York. They will try to impound your vessel and they may proceed against you and your crew. Do not be alarmed. Rely on our consulate in New York."

They let me go in time to catch a plane which reached Gdynia before the Batory sailed under a newly appointed captain.

Actually, I had no trouble with the American authorities on this particular trip, but eventually the Batory was banned from New York. We had to give up our run to the United States and turn to different waters—the Mediterranean, Red Sea and Arabian Sea.

Notwithstanding all the incidents which earned for the Batory the nickname, "Trouble Ship," the Communists kept me on. There were two reasons for this:

1. Some one had to run the ship. Though I never joined the Polish

Riots Break Out In Uranium Mines Of East Germany

By DON DOANE
BERLIN (AP)—New riots in the Soviet-run uranium mines of East Germany were reported today as a fresh wave of arrests by Communist police spread over the rebellious Russian zone.

The U. S. High Commission newspaper Neue Zeitung said troops of the East German "people's army" have been rushed into the Erzgebirge uranium mining area along the Czech border to put down the miners' new uprising.

The paper said 200 miners have been arrested this week for "open rioting." They were demanding release of 1,200 comrades arrested in the big anti-Communist revolt of June 17.

Lake Huron Fish Kills Unsolved

LANSING (AP)—The State Water Resources Commission today abandoned attempts to find the reason for a "substantial" killing of fish in Lake Huron north of Port Huron.

The commission said it could find no evidence which would explain the wave of dead fish cast up on Thumb area beaches.

L. F. Oeming, commission engineer, said staff experts believe the deaths resulted from "some natural cause" and that they had definitely established there was no "land based pollution" responsible.

Oeming said the staff found no foundation for speculation that the fish were killed by heavy vibrations caused by Army jet planes maneuvering over the lake and determined the Air Force planes had not been bombing in the lake.

The much-decorated Jabara flew in Wednesday evening. A short time later he left in an Air Force jet for Las Vegas, Nev., en route home to his wife and two children at McKinney, Tex.

A short, dark smiling man who dutifully puffed on a big cigar for photographers, Jabara was deadly serious when he discussed his 163 missions in Korea.

MIG pilots, he said, did not seem to be lacking any in experience or numbers, but recently they haven't been as aggressive as two years ago. Now, United Nations pilots have to hunt diligently for them, and often the Reds break off combat and take sanctuary north of the Yalu river.

Refugees fleeing to West Berlin told of night raids by police into hundreds of homes and mass roundups of suspected trouble makers in many cities. They said the wave of arrests began Tuesday.

"Red Hilde" Benjamin, the new justice minister, was busily carrying out her announced program of cracking down on strikers through the court system she heads. Hundreds of people acquitted and released after the June 17 revolt were reported rearrested. Others who got off with light sentences have had their cases reopened for an increase of penalties.

Allies And Reds On Threshold Of Truce Agreement In Korea

By ROBERT B. TUCKMAN
PANMUNJOM, Friday (AP) — The Allies and Communists seemed on the threshold of a Korean armistice today even as Red China's Peiping radio warned that renewed South

Korean opposition has thrown the cease-fire "in great danger."

There were persistent reports here that the historic document ending three years of fighting could be signed within 72 hours. These reports lacked official confirmation, however.

Southern Coal Mines Squeezed By Pay Demands

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — Joseph E. Moody, president of the Southern Coal producers Association, said today that mine owners in the South are being squeezed out of business by the miners union and by the steel industry.

Any new pay increase for coal miners would be "sheer economic insanity," Moody said. Higher labor costs would force most of the industry either to close down or "operate non-union," he argued.

Moody said an increasingly larger proportion of the nation's coal output is being produced with out contracts with the United Mine Workers Union, headed by John L. Lewis.

Moody told the Charleston Exchange Club in a prepared address that Lewis can give notice of terminating coal contracts on Aug. 1. He said Lewis may seek wage boosts to match those already won in the steel and auto industries.

But he said if that happens the coal industry, particularly in the South, would head for "disaster and chaos."

"It will wreck our Southern industry, put most of our workers on relief and bring an end to prosperity in the sections dependent on coal," Moody said.

Jet Ace Worried About Desk Job

TRAVIS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP)—Maj. James A. Jabara, America's first jet ace and one of only two triple jet aces, is home from Korea for the second time today—a little worried because he is slated for a desk job.

Two years ago the 29-year-old son of a Wichita, Kan., grocer shot down six Red MIGs in Korea and then wangled permission to go back and down nine more. He confessed:

"I'm really sweating this one out—I don't know what I'll do in an office."

The much-decorated Jabara flew in Wednesday evening. A short time later he left in an Air Force jet for Las Vegas, Nev., en route home to his wife and two children at McKinney, Tex.

A short, dark smiling man who dutifully puffed on a big cigar for photographers, Jabara was deadly serious when he discussed his 163 missions in Korea.

MIG pilots, he said, did not seem to be lacking any in experience or numbers, but recently they haven't been as aggressive as two years ago. Now, United Nations pilots have to hunt diligently for them, and often the Reds break off combat and take sanctuary north of the Yalu river.

A new campaign of terror swept through the Communist zone as police and courts combined in a concerted drive to suppress the danger of a new mass revolt.

Lottery Game Suspect Swallows Evidence

BALTIMORE (AP) — Sgt. Edwin Taylor caught his suspect Wednesday but the man he was arresting ate the evidence.

Taylor testified 36-year-old Billie E. Williams stuffed a wad of "conventional yellow lottery tickets" into his mouth.

Taylor said when he tried to pry the tickets out, the Negro defendant "bit down as hard as he could on my finger and wouldn't let go."

Then he swallowed the evidence. Williams was held in $2,500 bail on a lottery charge and another $500 bail on a charge of assaulting a policeman.

Not Wrapped Up
Authoritative Allied sources in Munsan said one or two minor points remain to be ironed out and that one or two more meetings of staff officers might be necessary before the chief Allied and Red negotiators meet to fix a date for the signing.

A source close to the negotiations said staff and liaison officers are progressing rapidly with final

Two Ministers May Be Quizzed By Red Hunters

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Un-American Activities Committee meets today with the likelihood it will authorize subpoenas for two ministers whose names figured in the hearing granted Methodist Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam.

Chairman Velde (R-Ill.) declined to brief newsmen on the agenda for the closed-door session. But other members indicated action will be taken regarding Dr. Harry F. Ward and Jack Richard McMichael.

Linked With Pinks
Rep. Clardy (R-Mich.) said Tuesday night that, in secret testimony taken recently in New York and Washington, both were named as members of the Communist party.

Ward, described as a retired member of New York's Union Theological Seminary faculty, could not be reached immediately. His home at Palisades, N. J., said he was vacationing in Canada.

McMichael, former executive secretary of the Methodist Federation for Social Action, said he was not a member of the Communist party. He is now pastor of the Methodist Church at Upper Lake, Calif.

Opinions Differ
A re-hash of Oxnam's testimony is also in order at today's committee session. Differences of opinion reared up Wednesday regarding the meaning of a resolution the committee adopted toward the close of the hearing which lasted nearly 10 hours Tuesday.

Rep. Donald Jackson (R-Calif.) contended the bishop was neither "cleared" nor found "guilty" by the committee action since he said the bishop had not been charged with anything.

Rep. Doyle (D-Calif.), however, insisted the committee clearly declared it had no evidence which showed the churchman was affiliated with the Communist party.

Scout Jamboree Closes Tonight

JAMBOREE CITY, Calif. (AP) — This is "Auld Lang Syne" day for the thousands of Boy Scouts from throughout the Union who for a week have been kicking up dust on this 3,000-acre ranch and plunging gleefully into the ocean nearby.

The third National Jamboree of the Boy Scouts of America, attended by more than 45,000 boys and leaders, ends officially tonight, although it will take four days to move everyone out by special trains and buses and automobiles.

Boys began to strike their tents and stow their gear, but the general jamboree activity was undiminished. As usual, almost half the camp went ocean swimming in relays. The favorite jamboree sport of swapping continued at the same feverish pitch.

Rehearsals were being completed for the big closing show, "Scout's Trail to the Future," in the outdoor arena. This production, put on by the scouts themselves, is designed to tell in pageantry and narration the story of this vast Southern California Irvine ranch.

As a finale, the great crowd will sing "Auld Lang Syne" and the 1953 jamboree will be history.

details, but the armistice has not yet been "wrapped up."

Staff officers were said to have drawn the cease-fire line across Korea during a 15-hour session ending at 1:45 a. m. Thursday. Arrangements for exchanging prisoners of war wanting to return reportedly were set up at a meeting later in the day.

Armistice Hall Goes Up
Despite a hostile reaction by Communist radio stations to President Syngman Rhee's statement Wednesday that South Korea will follow its own course of action unless the Chinese agree within six months of a truce to leave North Korea, Red workmen continued work on "Armistice Hall," the building designed for the truce signing ceremony.

The Reds hammered on the building all Thursday night, aided by American searchlights.

Official opinion in Washington was that a truce would be signed soon.

Eisenhower Hopes Senate Will Cancel Cuts In Foreign Aid

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower, rebuffed in the House, looked to the Senate today to restore to foreign aid funds some of the $1,100,000,000 cuts he says are too deep.

The House ignored the President's late-hour plea Wednesday night and approved without major change a total of $4,438,678,000 in new foreign aid funds for the year which started July 1.

Eisenhower had requested $5,138,922,227, some 2½ billions less than recommended by former President Truman.

House approval was by a 288-115 rollcall vote. The appropriation was supported by 128 Republicans, 159 Democrats and 1 independent, with 82 Republicans and 33 Democrats voting against it.

Before the final vote a solid bloc of Republicans beat down six Democratic-supported attempts to raise the total. A few hours earlier Eisenhower had told a news conference that the reductions were too heavy for America's own security.

The House upheld its Appropriations Committee in making cuts of $700,244,227 in new money and in ordering the administration to return to the Treasury $414,806,298.

Chicago's Registered Narcotic Addicts Like Heroin Best
CHICAGO (AP)—The first eight narcotics addicts to register in Chicago under a recently enacted state law show a decided preference for heroin.

Edward O. Holly, assistant director of the State Department of Health and registration, said Wednesday seven of the registrants use heroin while one is a marijuana smoker.

The law is designed to discourage illegal use of drugs by requiring addicts to register and carry registration certificates or face jail sentences of up to one year.

Pravda Spurns Call For Big 4 Meeting
MOSCOW (AP)—In a major statement of Communist policy, Pravda today spurned the West's call for a September conference of the Big Four foreign ministers on Germany and Austria. The organ of the Soviet Communist party said the invitation was a behind-the-back "deal" attempting to force the Soviet Union's hand in advance.

The front-page editorial was the first Soviet reaction to the July 15 invitation from the U. S., British and French ministers to Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov to meet with them.

BISHOP NO RED — Methodist Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam (above) has no affiliation with the Communist party, the House Committee on Un-American Activities has decided, following a grueling hearing in Washington. British Leaders Look For Upsets In Soviet Ranks

LONDON (AP) — Leaders of Britain's government were reported far from convinced today that Premier Georgi M. Malenkov wields total power in the Soviet Union.

Qualified informants said Prime Minister Churchill and his colleagues, on the basis of their own information from Moscow, would not be surprised if changes even more dramatic than the purging of Lavrenty P. Beria take place in the Russian hierarchy, and within the foreseeable future.

These private opinions were given considerable support by Acting Prime Minister R. A. Butler's statements to Parliament Wednesday.

Events Watched
Opening a foreign affairs debate in the House of Commons, Butler explained the Western Allies had proposed a Big Four foreign ministers meeting on Germany and Austria even though they "might await further and perhaps even more sensational events behind the Iron Curtain, and above all wait to see who are likely to remain the real repositories of power in Moscow with whom we will have to negotiate."

Within the context of this thinking, British officials today pondered the meaning of:

1. The apparent failure of three high leaders of the Red army to attend an important meeting of Russian military men in Moscow last week.

2. The sudden eight-day postponement of the meeting of the Soviet Union's parliament, the Supreme Soviet, which had been set last week for July 28 and now has been put off to Aug. 5.

Purge Not Complete
The Moscow meeting of the Red army bosses was called to hear denunciations of Beria, the deposed police chief formerly considered No. 2 man to Malenkov.

British officials noted that the absentees included one of the two deputy ministers of defense, Marshal Alexander M. Vasilievsky (the other deputy, Marshal Georgi Zhukov, spoke at the meeting); Marshal Ivan S. Konev, before Stalin's death commander of Soviet ground forces and an honor guard at Stalin's funeral.

Bank Bandits Slip Through Livonia Police Blockade

LIVONIA (AP)—Police and the FBI pushed the hunt today for a pair of bank bandits who somehow managed to break through a belt of 40 police cars circling this city Wednesday.

The two gunmen, wearing hunting caps and their faces hidden by red bandanas, robbed the Livonia branch of the National Bank of Detroit of $27,411 in bills and silver yesterday and fled in a grey Chrysler.

Moments after they had left the bank the alarm was turned in. A short time later police cars had set up road blocks ringing the area. But the bandits eluded them.

Monarchists Oppose DeGasperi In Italy

ROME (AP) — The Italian Monarchist party jolted Premier Alcide De Gasperi's chances of achieving a stable government today by deciding, as a bloc, to oppose him in his first vote of confidence.

The decision means that if all parties stick to their announced lines, De Gasperi would lose the vote in the newly elected and delicately balanced Parliament.

Tax Repeal Voted

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Finance Committee Wednesday approved a bill, passed by the House over the Eisenhower administration's objections to repeal the 20 per cent tax on movie theater tickets.

Horse Pulling Is Fair Feature

Prizes totalling $2430 are offered in the Upper Peninsula State Fair horse pulling contests to be held Friday and Saturday, Aug. 21 and 22, at the Upper Peninsula State Fair in Escanaba.

The lightweight teams will compete Friday afternoon at 1:30. The heavyweights teams will compete Saturday morning at 10. The lightweight division is for teams weighing less than 3,000 pounds. As a special inducement for teams travelling over 300 miles, four additional premiums, $100 to $35, are offered. An additional award of $100 is granted to the owner of any team that establishes a new world's record.

The present world's record for lightweight teams was set at Escanaba in the Upper Peninsula State Fair in 1951. It is held by a team owned by Charles Roehl and Son, of Smith Creek, Mich., 3575 pounds pulled a distance of 27 1/2 feet.

Several teams capable of establishing a new record in either weight division of the contest are entered in the 1953 competition.

The contests are conducted on a tractive dynamometer furnished by Michigan State College.

A special contest for Upper Peninsula teams also is a feature of the event.

MARQUETTE—By 12:30 Wednesday noon 1,106 Marquette County children had been inoculated with gamma globulin serum in the two clinics in Ishpeming and Marquette. Marquette reported 594 inoculations and 641 registrations, while Ishpeming had 512 inoculations and the same number registrations. Between 10 a. m. and 12:30 p. m. 1,880 free soft drinks were distributed to children, parents and clinic staff members. Marquette County residents are asked to guard their radios awaiting news of a speed-up or slow-down. Operations at both clinics are proceeding smoothly, and no children have been kept waiting.

IRON RIVER—Two pipeline employees, Glenn Emmons, 22, and James Spruell, 28, narrowly escaped serious injury Tuesday when they became trapped in a cave-in of a trench at the operation near the Gibbs City road.

The Anderson Brothers contract company reported that Spruell, a welder-helper, and Emmons, a laborer, were buried up to their waist-lines.

They were taken to the Stambaugh General hospital where X-rays showed no fractures. Spruell was released after an examination and Emmons was detained there overnight for observation. He was released today.

City Planning Board To Meet

A suitable location for a road from S. 4th St. into Ludington Park to the beach house will be the subject of discussion and recommendations during a meeting of the City Planning Commission tonight in City Hall. The meeting will begin at 7:30.

The proposed new road will join onto the road already there. Other items on tonight's agenda include:

Recommendation on architecture and extent of planned addition to radio station WDBC on Sand Point.

Street layout in the 1000 block on N. 16th St. The street is now a dead end, and the commission will discuss developing 11th Ave., thereby making N. 16th St. no longer a dead-end.

The contemplated purchase by the Escanaba School Board of land, now owned by the city, which lies just east of the Escanaba Country Club property. The School Board intends to use the land for future school-building purposes. The land lies on both sides of S. 15th St., and the question of closing off that block of S. 15th St. in order to give the School Board more land to build on, will be discussed. There is no street there at present, but extension of 15th St. through the area by the city has been a possibility.

Obituary

PETER G. JOHNSON
The body of Peter Gustaf Johnson, Carney, who died Tuesday, is lying in state today at Anderson Funeral Home. It will be removed Friday to Carney Free Church where it will lie in state beginning at 12 noon CST. Rev. Wagstrom of Carney will conduct funeral services Friday afternoon at 2 CST in the church. Burial will be in the family lot in Carney Free Church Cemetery.

In addition to survivors mentioned previously, Johnson is also survived by two brothers, Charles, of Granite Falls, Wash., and Swan, of Foster City.

KOSTI RAJALA
The body of Kosti (Ernie) Rajala of Rock, who died Wednesday, will be removed Saturday at noon from Anderson Funeral Home to the Finnish Lutheran Church in Rock. Funeral services will be conducted Saturday at 1:30 at the church by Rev. Amos Marin of Gwinn. The Rock Post of the American Legion will observe military rites. Burial will be in Rock Cemetery.

area are now in violation.
A committee of the Chamber of Commerce and Roy's Jordan, Sault outdoor advertiser, studied proposals with City Attorney James J. Fenlon, and their recommendations were adopted Monday night. Fenlon said the committee felt that the ban on commercial signs should be continued, but the restrictions should be relaxed to allow local businesses, and civic, fraternal or church groups to erect signs of not over 25 square feet in size.

Top Defense Bosses Hold Big Informal Huddle At Quantico

QUANTICO MARINE BASE, Va.—The men who run the military — more than 100 civilians, generals and admirals — begin tonight a camp-meeting-style conference.

During the next three days they will live together, join in sports and talk serious business about American defenses, the Korean War, the Russian military menace. On Saturday they will be joined by President Eisenhower.

Secretary of Defense Wilson summoned all the top policy and administrative officials of the vast Defense Department to the meetings, to run through Sunday morning. Invited, too, were chiefs of other agencies whose work involves defense matters.

Among those who have accepted his invitation are Vice President M. Dodge, Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey, Defense Mobilizer Arthur S. Flemming, Under Secretary of State Walter Bedell Smith, Atty. Gen. Brownell, Chairman Lewis Strauss of the Atomic Energy Commission and Director Allen W. Dulles of the Central Intelligence Agency.

It is Wilson's hope that each of the officials—many, like himself, new to the Pentagon and military matters—will get to know the others on a first-name basis. So the invitation that went out emphasized the informality of the occasion, saying:

"Comfort rather than appearance will be the rule, and none of the activities will call for formal attire."
Wilson will have opportunity to explain directly to the general, and admirals how he thinks the national defense system can be maintained and even built up with a reduced military budget.

High Humidity Causes Woes

"It's not the heat, it's the humidity" received a forceful demonstration here this week, S. E. Decker, United States meteorologist in Escanaba, said this morning.

Decker cited two days, the 20th and 22nd, on which the temperature in Escanaba was nearly the same. On the 20th it was 85, high for the season so far, and on the 22nd it was 84.

Yet, said the meteorologist, on the 20th people were very uncomfortable, and the Weather Bureau received many calls asking about this unusually hot weather. On the 22nd, Wednesday, no one seemed to suffer, according to Decker.

The difference was in the humidity and in the wind, Decker declared. Daytime humidity on the 20th was in the 70's and 80's, and the wind averaged 5.2 miles an hour, with the highest wind 11 miles an hour.

On the 22nd, however, daytime humidity was 35 to 40 per cent, and the wind averaged 9.7 miles per hour, with the highest wind 20 miles per hour.

Detroit Children Lost Since Sunday

DETROIT (AP)—Ten-year-old Billy Stankewitz and his sister, Beverly, 7, have run away before. Always they came home again.

Today, however, the family was worried. So were police of Warren township. A widespread search was under way.

Billy and Beverly have been missing since they failed to appear at mass at Ascension Roman Catholic Church in Van Dyke last Sunday.

A statewide police alarm is out. There was a rundown on all known sex offenders. Not a clue has come up.

Police Commissioner Stanley S. Hamacher of the township said he feared kidnapping or some other form of violence.

The mother, Mrs. Martin Stankewitz, said a movie had been promised to Billy and Beverly after Sunday dinner.

"They loved movies and only something terrible could have prevented them from going," she said.

When the youngsters left for church, they had 40 cents for the collection. But a check of the church envelopes disclosed they never made the contributions.

There are five other children in the family—Robert Jr., 11; Kathleen, 6; David, 3; Darlene, 1, and Daniel, three months.

The father, 34, is a dairy worker. He was unable to go to church with the youngsters Sunday because he had to be on the job.

Violence In Labor Dispute

IRON MOUNTAIN — Violence flared for the first time Tuesday in the 22-day-old UAW-CIO union strike against the Kingsford Chemical company, and Frank Sleik, 37, of 507 Margaret street, announced for the union's mobile public address system, was arrested on a charge of assault and battery.

Arraigned later before Municipal Judge James Perino on a complaint filed by George LaPointe, of Quinnesec, Sleik entered a plea of not guilty and demanded a trial. Judge Perino, who set the trial for Aug. 5, ordered Sleik to post a $25 bond.

The alleged assault took place at about 4:45 Tuesday afternoon on the main street of Quinnesec, where Sleik was patrolling with the union sound-car. LaPointe, a non-striking worker at the Kingsford Chemical company, told Prosecutor John V. Zanardi, who issued the warrant, that Sleik struck him with his fists while he (LaPointe) was seated in his car.

Called "Scab" Over Speaker Sleik was arrested about an hour later on the union picket line at the Chemical plant by Iron Mountain and Kingsford police.

According to the story LaPointe told Prosecutor Zanardi, Sleik, while patrolling in Quinnesec, called LaPointe's name over the public address system and identified him as one of the "scab" workers. LaPointe said he drove up to the Sleik car and asked the announcer what he meant by a "scab." Sleik's answer, according to Zanardi, was "anybody who crossed the picket line."

LaPointe, according to Zanardi, answered Sleik, using a profane name, and, according to prosecutor's report, Sleik got out of his car and struck at LaPointe, who was seated in his car. LaPointe said he was struck on the side of the face and arm. The blow on his arm knocked off his wrist watch and broke it.

Permit Revoked In court this morning, Sleik made no statement except to enter a plea of not guilty. Meanwhile, Police Chief Frank Pipp said today that he has revoked the Union permit for use of the sound-truck on the city streets, after receiving several complaints.

Swimmer's Itch Is Not Present Here No swimmer's itch exists at the Escanaba and Gladstone beaches, to the best knowledge of the Delta-Menominee District Health Department, the department reported this morning.

The department stated it has had calls asking if the annoyance, present at some beaches in the northern part of the lower peninsula, is present here.

William Harrison is director of the department.

Brother Of Escanaba Man Is Injured In Hunting Accident

Joseph Paquette, 52, of Little Lake, brother of Sam Paquette, 203 N. 19th St., is reported in serious condition today as the result of a hunting accident which occurred yesterday at 10 a. m.

Paquette had been at his hunting camp, also at Little Lake, watching for a woodchuck. As he ran out of the cabin after the woodchuck, he stumbled with a 22 rifle and the gun discharged. The bullet entered above his heart, went through his lung and out his back. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ranger of Little Lake immediately came to Joseph Paquette's assistance. He was taken to Ishpeming General Hospital by ambulance.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Paquette and Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Beaudry of Escanaba visited Mr. Paquette yesterday at Ishpeming.

Truck Overturns With Cargo Of Eggs

Guy Robar, 64, of 1837 3rd Ave. N., lost control of a panel truck Wednesday afternoon at 1:50 on US-2 near Narenta and the truck turned over on its side.

Most of the truck's cargo of 80 dozen eggs broke, state police said.

Robar was ticketed for reckless driving. While Trooper Ray Anderson was policing the Robar accident, a car pulling a trailer came along. The car and trailer reminded Anderson of a message the Gladstone Post had received from the Frankmunth police department, describing the vehicle of a man whom relatives wished to contact because of an emergency.

Anderson stopped the car, and trailer and it proved to be Aloysius Schmeitzer of Frankmunth, the correct man.

Bark River School Financial Report For Year Issued

BARK RIVER—The Bark River-Harris school district ended the fiscal year on June 30 with a cash balance of $21,180.60 as compared with $12,830.10, cash balance of July 1, 1952. The total general fund and cash balance for the fiscal year was $163,787.94.

Among the revenue receipts, state school aid brought the highest revenue, $87,968.22. Other revenue receipts are local tax collections, $12,856.95; state primary, $19,482.33, and state sales tax, $21,689.22.

General fund disbursements included $77,995.93 for teachers' salaries.

Transportation costs totaled $19,104.35. The total miles operated were 118,985 at a total cost of $22,532.75, which shows 18.9 cents the cost per mile. Five hundred and five students were transported with the cost per student at $40.60.

At the regular meeting of the Bark River-Harris townships board of education, Clarence Hanchek was re-elected president. Alfred Schoen was elected secretary, Thomas LaFleur, treasurer and Arthur Sundquist and Steve Sheveriski, trustees.

The contracts were signed. Raymond J. Mayotte of Lake Linden will be the manual arts instructor and Francis Kowalski of Menominee will be the mathematics and science instructor. The school staff is complete with the exception of a music instructor.

A discussion of gymnasium facilities and plans were presented. They discussed possibilities of building an adequate gymnasium and auditorium.

Vote To Be Close On 400 Million For More Jet Bombers

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Maybank (D-SC) predicted today "the vote will be close" on his proposal to give the Air Force an extra 400 million dollars for jet bombers—an issue senators on both sides agreed would be a test of Senate strength on the administration's defense budget.

Sen. Ferguson (R-Mich), floor manager for the $4½ billion dollar military money bill, voiced confidence Maybank's move would be beaten.

A small group of Democrats is actively fighting to increase the new funds for the Air Force, cut by more than five billion dollars

Electronic Auto Ends All Driving Worries

NEW YORK (AP)—Maybe there's a rosy tinge to your driving future. A laboratory car at RCA's David Sarnoff Research Center in Princeton, N. J., can:

1. Steer itself along a prescribed route.
2. Stop when it approaches a metal obstacle.
3. Turn out to pass a slower car.

According to an announcement Wednesday about the five-foot electronic auto, you'd have no driving worries at all, including being cracked up by careless drivers.

The whole system involves electric cables under specially constructed highways, with electronic equipment controlling the steering gear and picking up wave impulses from the cables.

Production Hits Record In 1952

WASHINGTON (AP)—The nation's boom economy in 1952 rang up a record total production worth some 348 billion dollars, according to the Department of Commerce.

Individuals spent more for food alone in 1952, the government report said, than the total dollar value of all goods and services the nation produced in any of five depression years 1931-35. However, the depression dollar was more valuable than the 1952 dollar.

Measured by the dollar's purchasing power in 1939, which the department took as a yardstick, the country's gross national product in 1952 was nearly three times what it was at the depression low in 1933. The gross national product is the total value of all goods and services produced.

Without adjustment for the difference in the purchasing power of the dollar before and after 1939, the nation's 1952 output was more than six times that of 1933.

The Department of Commerce report released Tuesday said government spending in 1952 was 77½ billion dollars in 1952 compared to somewhat less than 8 billions in 1933.

National income reached $291,600,000,000 in 1952, a 5 per cent advance over 1951. Personal income was $269,700,000,000, a rise of 6 per cent over 1951.

Like gross national product, national income and personal income also hit record peaks in 1952, the Commerce Department said.

KIDNEYS MUST REMOVE EXCESS WASTE

Nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness may be due to slow-down of kidney function. Doctors say good kidney function is very important to good health. When some everyday condition, such as stress and strain, causes this important function to slow down, many folks suffer nagging backache—feel miserable. Minor bladder irritations due to cold or wrong diet may cause getting up nights or frequent passages. Don't neglect your kidneys if these conditions bother you. Try Doan's Pills—a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. It's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief from these discomforts—help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today!

Now You See It...

In 1952, 320-acre Lake Inman, near Inman, Kans., had plenty of water and was a favorite pic-nicking and vacation spot. There were swimming, boating, motor-boat racing and summer-long fishing. It was the largest natural lake in Kansas.

...Now You Don't

This is Inman Lake today. Most of it is plowed and planted for crops. In this photo, what's left of the lake hardly shows, 'way off in the background. Up to date, it has never gone dry, but it may this summer. In the past several years, silt from surrounding farms has been washed into the lake, making it much more shallow. It also covered the springs which fed the lake, making it more dependent on rainfall. And there has been so little rainfall there this year that Lake Inman may just disappear.

Rock

ROCK — The Royal Neighbors will meet at the home of Mrs. Ernest Fosterling Thursday evening, July 23.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Boyer, Milwaukee, spent a week with Mr. and Mrs. Emil Koski and Mr. and Mrs. Arne Roine. Mrs. Boyer is a cousin of Mr. Roine.

Mrs. August Larson Jr., and Lee Larson visited with relatives at Marinette.

Paul Seppanen motored to Grand Rapids for a week's visit with his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Seppanen and family.

Richard Berg and Allen Salmi are attending the U. P. Bible Camp for junior boys at Little Lake this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Onni Pajula and children, Ironwood, visited with Mrs. Sulo Pajula Sunday.

Lee Larson, Roger Ramseth and Miss Betty Lindstrom motored to Green Bay Friday where Miss Lindstrom visited overnight with Miss Marie Ramseth before returning to Fall River, Mass.

Erich Riekkola and Miss Alice Massey, Iron Mountain, visited with Erich's mother, Mrs. Sulo Pajula over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Peterson, LaGrange, Ill., were guests at the Arne Roine home for a week. They spent part of the time at the cottage at Shag Lake. Mrs. Peterson and Mrs. Roine are sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Heikkinen and Mr. and Mrs. Uno Maki and son, Detroit, are spending their two weeks vacation as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arne Roine. Part of the time they visited in Rock and part time at the Roine cottage at Shag Lake. Mrs. Heikkinen is a sister of Mr. Roine.

Mr. and Mrs. Arne Roine and granddaughter, Heidi, left for Eagle Harbor, for a few days visit.

Living Costs Hit New Record High

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government reported that rising food prices forced living costs to a record high between May and June.

Besides higher food costs, canceling out most of the grocery store price declines which took place earlier this year, price boosts were reported for housing, medical care and such things as cigarettes and beer in some cities.

The index of the Bureau of Labor Statistics rose four-tenths of one per cent between mid-May and mid-June. This put the index at 114.5 per cent of the 1947-49 average.

Still Going Up

This means that the consumer paid in June nearly $1.15 for what he could buy for a dollar in the 1947-49 period.

Up to now prices have remained fairly stable since President Eisenhower ordered government controls abandoned on prices and wages earlier this year.

Today's index, because of the statistical work required, reflects living costs for mid-June, a month ago. Prices since then, if anything, have been upward.

Living costs, as measured by the government index, reached their peak last November under Truman's administration when the index was 114.3 per cent of the 1947-49 average.

It declined to 114.1 in December, 113.9 in January, 113.4 in February, but then began to climb back. It reached 113.6 in March, 113.7 in April and 114.0 in May — flirting close to the November mark.

Trouble For Ike

What has happened during June was already fairly well known in advance of the index because of published food prices. Led by increases for fresh fruits, vegetables and meats, they climbed two per cent during the mid-May to mid-June period.

Rents and some other items, moreover, have been increasing steadily. They count much less than food in calculating the overall living cost figures however.

New high living costs are likely further to belabor the Eisenhower administration, which already is knee deep in the associated problems of trying to achieve campaign promises of balancing the national budget and reducing taxes.

Government Gets Out Of Synthetic Rubber

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate passed 65-16 Tuesday night a bill to get the government out of the synthetic rubber business but it attached an amendment some senators declared might prevent sale of the government-owned 29 plants.

The measure, asked by President Eisenhower, now goes to a Senate conference with the House, which approved it in different form.

The amendment sponsored by Sen. Russell Long (D-La.) would permit either branch of Congress to veto any of the sales individually.

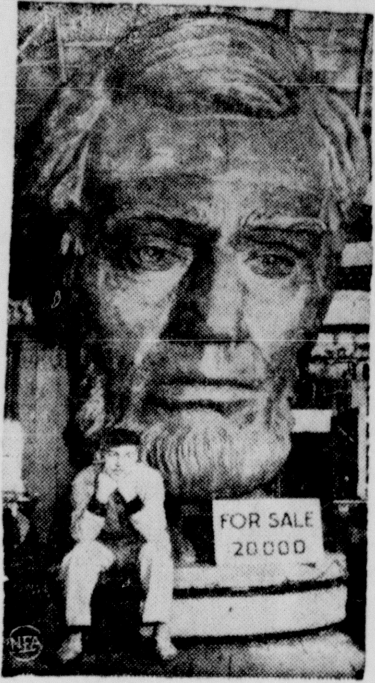

The 29 plants were built in World War II at a cost of $18 million dollars.

Model Asks $25,000 For Loss Of Lashes

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP)—An eyelash curler ruined her wink, a free-lance model charges, and she's suing the manufacturer for $25,000.

Mrs. Laine Coonan of Milwaukee filed suit Tuesday in federal court against the Kurlash Co. of Rochester.

She claimed that "the rubber edge of the curler was missing" and that when the curler was removed all the lashes from one eyelid went with it.

FOR SALE — Don McQuade of Seattle, Wash., is waiting patiently for someone to come around with $20,000 and take this 12-foot-high plaster head of Abraham Lincoln off his hands. He inherited the statue when he purchased the studio of Alonzo Victor Lewis, noted sculptor who died in 1946.

Girl Gets Alligator In Lake Near Pontiac

PONTIAC (AP)—Nine-year-old Marilyn Anderson of Pontiac, who for two years has wanted a pet alligator, found one Tuesday—in nearby Elizabeth Lake.

Marilyn, her father, Werner, 38, and her brother, Jerry, 11, were approaching the landing at the family cottage when they spotted an alligator in front of the dock.

The animal, usually found in southern states, was lying in six inches of water with its head sticking above the surface.

Anderson grabbed the two-foot alligator by the tail and threw it into the boat—almost getting nipped in the process. Then he transferred it to a large tub.

Marilyn, an expert on the care of alligators since a trip to Florida two years ago, said she would feed her pet raw meat.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson unhesitatingly heard her declare: "If we feed it correctly, the alligator will grow to six feet and weigh 200 pounds in two years."

No one knew how the alligator got into the lake.

Cold War In Russia Isolates Foreigners

Editor's Note—Eddy Gilmore, for 11 years an UP correspondent in Moscow, is back on "the right side of the Iron Curtain," as he expresses it. In this story, third of a series to appear here this week, Gilmore gives a glimpse into Moscow life as foreigners used to live it, and as they have lived it, since the cold war developed.

By EDDY GILMORE

PARIS UP—The cold war started, and a frigid wind began to blow from Joseph Stalin's Kremlin, cooling off any faint hope of American-Soviet cooperation and growing friendship. The air from Washington wasn't exactly warm, either.

It would be incorrect to say that Americans in Moscow, even during the greatest moments of wartime pal talk, were ever howlingly popular with the Communist government. But we were with the people and compared to what happened later, we led a charmed life.

Invited To Parties

I left an official party at 2:20 one morning, arm in arm with a man who is now a marshal in the Soviet Army. With other Russians and foreigners from some of the embassies, we journeyed to my apartment.

This high military man, once inside my modest place, lit the candles, turned down the lights and sat down at the piano and played until dawn. It all seemed not very unusual then.

You invited Russians to your apartment and some of them came. Some of them invited you to their places. You found yourself at real Russian parties that must not have changed over the years. And there were lots of Russians about.

You liked the people and they seemed to like you.

Scandal Talk Starts

And there were the Gypsies. The best Russian parties, I believe, must have Gypsies. At the end of the evening, like champagne at the end of the dinner. Well, we had them back in those days.

Then one morning, after a very fine party, there was a "veliki skandal." A bad show. An incident.

A junior member of the American Embassy not on the diplomatic list was taking a Gypsy girl home in a taxi, I believe. He reported she resented his attention. She reported, and in the public press, that she resented his advances. The paper blamed American boorishness and a lack of respect for women.

Then there was the case of another young American whose automobile was rammed from behind by a Russian car. He got out and there was a large argument and when the Russian started to drive off, the American smashed in one of his side windows.

These were signs of the times. The cold wind blew colder. No Gypsies at parties. Very few Russians at parties. Then no Russians at all at parties. Then no Russian friends.

Travel restrictions were clamped on all foreigners.

As the wife of a former American ambassador, Admiral Alan G. Kirk, so aptly put it—all the foreigners were thrown up on a raft together.

Some couldn't stand it. One day a young attaché at the embassy told the ambassador: "They almost got me last night. They tried to push me out of the window."

In a few days he was on his way home.

A Norwegian shot himself one night. A young man from the British Embassy ran amok in the Metropole Hotel's dining room. He broke four chairs over various Russians, upset two tables, smashed dishes and got thrown in jail. This thing that the Soviet authorities had brought on—this complete isolation of the foreigners—naturally created resentment among certain foreigners.

Policeman At Door

To the few Russians they had contact with, servants mostly, they could be very rude at times. And often in the presence of my wife (a Russian) we'd hear the phrase "these damn Russians." Or worse. But these were the exceptions. Most foreigners treated their servants with kindness no matter how cold the war got. And they were wonderful to my wife and the Russians wives of other foreigners. They were Soviet citizens, yet Soviet citizens seldom, if ever, came to their apartments. A uniformed policeman stood by the front door of my apartment house, 24 hours a day, no matter the weather.

Even if any Russian had wanted to, he would have been turned away by the fellow in uniform, before he completed his visit to our apartment.

That's just a sampling of the cold war.

Principal Promoted

BIG RAPIDS UP—Richard Donley will move up to the post of Big Rapids school superintendent after serving 20 years in the school system and five years as high school principal. He succeeds Edward L. Murdock, who resigned to accept a similar position in Highland Park.

LET ME SEE—When Paul Delaney, four-and-one-half months old, of Boston, Mass., donned glasses, he wasn't kidding—he's wearing them on his doctor's orders. He is the youngest wearer of glasses in the history of the Massachusetts Eye and Ear Infirmary.

AUSSIES EAT WELL

CANBERRA UP—Government figures show the average Australian eats more than the American, Canadian, or Briton. In 1951-52, the Australians averaged 3,305 calories a head a day. This compared with an average of 3,240 calories in the United States, 3,170 in Canada and 2,950 in Great Britain.

Princess Margaret Believed Free To Wed Divorced Man

LONDON UP—The government indicated today that Queen Elizabeth II has given permission to her sister, Princess Margaret, to marry a divorced man.

The man is Group Capt. Peter Townsend, British air attaché at the embassy in Brussels. He is 38 and the Princess 22.

Acting Prime Minister Richard A. Butler told the House of Commons that the government proposes to introduce legislation to amend the Regency Act of 1937. A change in the act would make it easier for Margaret to follow her heart's desire if she wants to marry the divorced air hero.

Clement Attlee, the opposition leader asked if the contents of the proposed bill was agreeable to all members of the royal family. Butler replied in the affirmative and said the personal feelings of all concerned should be respected by everybody and "the present deplorable speculation and gossip brought to an end."

Under the present act, Princess Margaret would become regent if the Queen died before Prince Charles, 4, was able to take the throne.

Townsend brought a divorce action against his wife, on grounds of misconduct, but the Church of England frowns on remarriage of all divorced persons.

Margaret must have her older sister's permission to marry. She stands third in line to the throne. As the regency law now stands, she would become the regent (acting monarch) if Queen Elizabeth died or became incapable of carrying out her duties before Prince Charles reached 18.

Butler did not go into details but presumably Margaret's responsilities as regent would be transferred to the Duke of Edinburgh, husband of the Queen.

Drowns With Niece

HESPERIA UP—George Pahl, 45, went running into McLaren Lake Tuesday with his 5-year-old niece, Margaret Mary Pahl, astride his back. He stepped beyond his depth and both drowned.

Commission Cautious

KALAMAZOO UP—The City Commission postponed action Tuesday on a proposal to establish an extensive one-way street system. Commissioners said they wanted to find out what the voters think of the proposition.

Lollipops Help Marquette Drive

MARQUETTE (AP)—The mass inoculation of 10,000 Marquette County children, who, in the next three days, will bear a few moments of misery to avoid a life-long burden of paralytic polio, began today.

Some 30 doctors, aided by 300 women volunteers, were armed with gamma globulin and lollipops in the hope of checking the spread of polio in this northern Michigan area.

Called "Operation Lollipop," it is also an experiment to determine the effectiveness of mass inoculations in decreasing the incidence of infantile paralysis.

Results of similar programs in other cities have proved encouraging, according to Dr. F. S. Leeder, director of the disease control division of the State Health Department.

Marquette County was chosen for the experiment because of the large number of polio cases in the area this year. There have been 19 cases in the county, 17 of them paralytic.

The Office of Defense Mobilization in Washington and Michigan's health department provided the scarce gamma globulin for the inoculations at clinics here and in Ishpeming.

Gun Cache Found Near Police Headquarters

NEW YORK (AP)—Raiders from the district attorney's office Tuesday uncovered a cache of 118 unregistered guns in a building facing the back entrance of New York City police headquarters.

Where the guns—foreign and American revolvers and automatics of various calibers—came from and for what use they were intended was not immediately known, the prosecutor's office said.

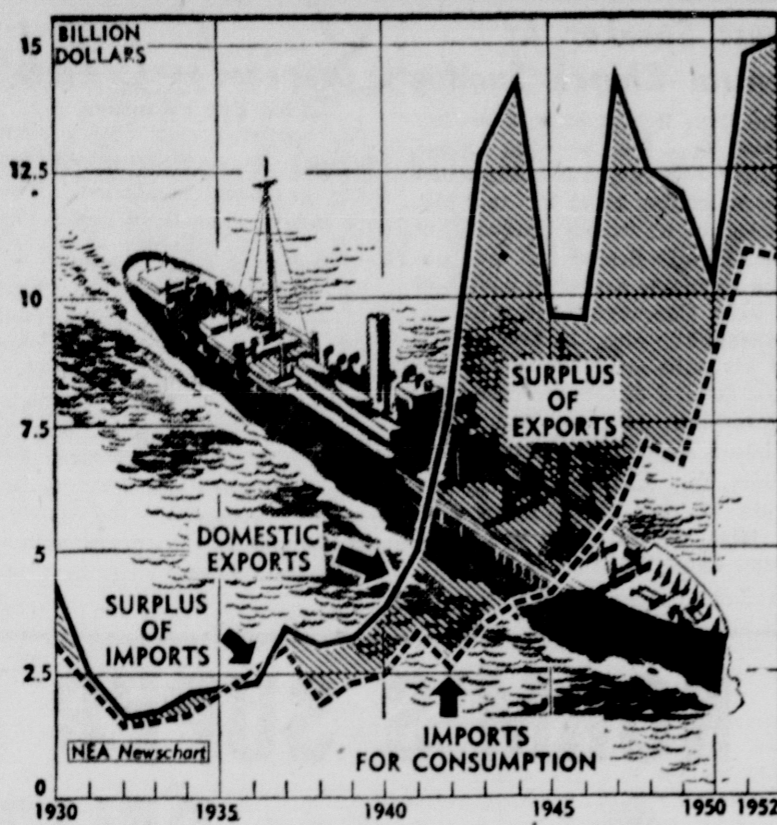

A licensed gunsmith and a manufacturer of police bills were arrested on charges of violating the weapons law.

Human Cowcatcher Receives Praise

EUREKA, Calif. (AP)—Engineer Earl Wahlund saw a calf caught in a fence, with its mother bawling helplessly.

So he stopped his Northwestern Pacific passenger train, freed the calf and arrived here 10 minutes late.

Reprimanded? No, because NWP Superintendent A. G. Bays, who happened to be in his private car on the train, praised Wahlund for his "humanitarian action."

RIDING HIGH ON SEA OF FOREIGN TRADE—Newschart above illustrates U. S. foreign trade from 1930 to the present. During the 22-year period, only in 1936 did imports exceed exports, but after that exports held the upper hand. Exports rose to high of over $15 billion during 1952, while imports declined slightly. Difference between what we sell abroad and what we buy abroad is largely the "dollar gap" that plagues foreign nations. Data from National Industrial Conference Board.

Four Reds Formerly With New York Police

NEW YORK (AP)—A former Communist party member says four Reds were once on the New York police department's antisubversive squad.

The ex-Communist, John Lautner, testified Tuesday at the departmental trial of Police Lt. Arthur Miller, 42, who is accused of lying to his superiors about Communist party affiliation.

Lautner, although testifying at length about Miller, spoke generally about Communists and the police force. He said the four Reds on the antisubversive squad, not identified, have been ousted from the force.

More people get more news from newspapers than from all other sources combined.

Louis Lindens Are Observing Silver Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Louis V. Linden of 1005 Washington Ave., whose marriage took place July 21, 1928 in Escanaba, will mark their silver wedding anniversary with an open house Sunday, July 26, from 3 to 6 p. m. at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Linden were married by the Rev. O. R. Palm. They have lived here continuously since that time. Both are members of well known Escanaba families. Mrs. Linden was the former Alma Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Nelson.

They have three children, Robert of Fort Wayne, Ind., Mrs. John Medegrol, the former Alice Linden, of Detroit, and Norbert at home, and one grandchild.

Mr. Linden has been associated with the Upper Michigan Power and Light Co. many years.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Linden and daughter are arriving this weekend for the silver wedding observance.

WILL BE BRIDE—Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Nelson of Ironwood announce the engagement of their daughter, Elizabeth, to Ben Halmi, son of Mrs. Esther Valen of Rock. A fall wedding is planned.

Personals

Mrs. Anne Schlesinger of Ann Arbor is spending the week with her daughter, Mrs. Frank A. Bender Jr., and family.

Salad greens are an ideal food for people who want to cut down on their caloric intake, as it takes about 1½ pounds of them to yield 100 calories of energy. Their starch content is low.

Vows Spoken By Marian Pearson, Donald Nickel

Miss Marian Gertrude Pearson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick E. Pearson, 708 S. 12th St., and Donald R. Nickel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Nickels of Milwaukee, spoke their marriage vows at a 3 p. m. ceremony July 18 at the Bethany Lutheran Church.

The service was solemnized by Rev. Gustav Lund with yellow and white gladioli and mums and white hydrangeas amidst ferns forming the church and home decorations.

Pauline Pearson, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor while John F. Pearson of Oaklawn, Ill., brother of the bride acted as best man.

Gown of White Organdy

The bride wore a ballerina length gown of white frosted organdy styled with a Queen Anne collar. A white picture hat completed her ensemble. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and red roses.

A similar gown of yellow frosted organdy was worn by the maid of honor, who also wore a picture hat. A bouquet of ruby lilies was carried by the bride's only attendant.

Mrs. Frederick Pearson, mother of the bride, was attired in a dress of slate grey shantung with white accessories, while the bridegroom's mother attended the ceremony in a rose crepe dress with white accessories. Both mothers wore corsages fashioned by ruby lilies.

Preceding the ceremony, an immediate family dinner was held at 11 a. m. at the home of the bride. A reception at the bride's home was held from 4 p. m. to 7 p. m. Miss Dorothy Rose poured.

Guests At Wedding

The couple left on a honeymoon trip through Michigan and Wisconsin. The bride wore a white green traveling suit with white accessories. Her going away corsage was formed of yellow carnations.

The bride is a graduate of Escanaba High School and Badger Business College of Green Bay. The newlyweds will make their home at Milwaukee.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Phil Nickels of Milwaukee, parents of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. John Pearson and sons, Ricky and Ronnie, of Oaklawn, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Anderson, Mrs. Gertrude Grandall, Mrs. Mabel Kuchenberg and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Belonga, all of Marinette; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sundling of Gladstone and Mr. and Mrs. Gunnar Johnson of Nahma.

New Glassware Is Practical

BRIDE'S DREAM COME TRUE is an assortment of moderately priced but gracious and practical stemware for special occasions.

By GAYNOR MADDOX

NEA Food and Markets Editor

Good news for this year's brides—it's no longer socially important to worry about the right or wrong glass. So if you put milk in an iced tea glass or you serve ice cream parfait in a tall Pilsner glass once reserved only for beer, don't worry. It's the thing to do.

If a glass suits its need, then it's correct to use it. Today, with few families having servants, and many homes having too little storage space, designers are making glasses that are easier to take care of and more practical to use. Also, they achieve beauty at low price.

That's what Freda Diamond of New York told us. She is internationally known as a home-furnishings consultant, glassware designer for Libbey, has been

Texas Couple Married In Double Ring Ceremony

Miss Dean Davis and Thomas Baxter, both of Franklin, Tex., were united in marriage Monday at an 8 p. m. ceremony performed by the Rev. Karl J. Hammar in the parsonage of Central Methodist Church.

The bride wore a white gown and white accessories for the double ring service. She carried a white orchid. Miss Margaret Ann Morgan, whose home is in Oklahoma, was maid of honor. She wore a blue ensemble.

Mr. Baxter was attended by Richard Briggs. Both are employed in this area on pipe line construction by the Lakehead Pipeline Company.

Aunt Of Local Resident Dies

Mrs. A. J. Corbett, about 72, aunt of Mrs. Al Lauscher of Gladstone, died at her home at Chicago Tuesday, according to word received here.

Mrs. Corbett is known to many Gladstone residents having visited here on numerous occasions.

Surviving are two children, Joseph Corbett and Mrs. Mary Jane Fox, both of Chicago. There also is a brother, Maurice J. McCarthy, Janesville, Wis., and 3 grandchildren. Mr. Corbett died about 10 years ago.

Funeral services are to be conducted in St. Angela's Catholic Church, Chicago, Friday morning. Burial will be made at Janesville.

Mr. and Mrs. Lauscher left Wednesday night for Chicago to attend the services.

Far East Tin Mines Shut As Prices Fall

SINGAPORE (P)—A number of mines have closed owing to the big tumble in the price of tin, the head of one of the two smelting companies in Malaya disclosed.

E.M.F. Ferguson, chairman of the Straits Trading Co., in a report to the company's annual general meeting also said the present price of tin is probably the lowest at which the metal could be produced, excluding development and exploration.

East African Islands Produce World's Cloves

WASHINGTON — A bumper crop of cloves is expected this year from two small islands off the east coast of Africa.

Zanzibar, former ivory and slave trade center, and nearby Pemba produce nine-tenths of the world's supply of cloves, says the National Geographic Society.

Ruled by His Highness Seyyid Sir Khalifa bin Harub under the British Protectorate of Zanzibar, the islands are enjoying a prosperity unknown even in the old days when Zanzibar was the chief gateway to Africa for traders from East and West and outfitting base for famous explorers.

Since 1950, world demand and short supply has sent the price of cloves up 700 per cent, recalling days when the spice was so valuable that a single cargo more than paid the cost of Ferdinand Magellan's ill-fated first round-the-world voyage. The clove yield is periodically affected by hurricanes, droughts or heavy rains, and blight. In contrast to this year's supply, the 1952 crop was extremely small.

Smokers And Chewers

Least affected by yearly crop fluctuations is the housewife's spice shelf, where a box of cloves may last for months. The largest shipments of cloves—about 3,000 tons annually—go to Indonesia and into the favorite Indonesian cigarette, a mixture of 40 per cent cloves and 60 per cent tobacco. Lately, due to high prices, smokers have had to be content with a proportion of four parts of clove to 96 parts of tobacco.

Next largest customer is India where cloves are chewed with betel nut or mixed with other spice in highly seasoned dishes.

America and Europe combined import about 2,000 tons a year. Principle consumers are medicine and cosmetic manufacturers and confectioners. Oil of cloves as a fragrance, seasoning, and preservative was well known to the ancients and highly recommended by one Chinese sage in the third century B. C. as a breath sweetener.

Charlene Cosgrove Becomes Bride Of Richard D. Lucier

Miss Charlene Cecelia Cosgrove, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George P. Cosgrove, 617 Michigan Ave., and Richard Donald Lucier, son of Otto Lucier were united in marriage at a ceremony performed at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon in All Saints Rectory with Rev. Fr. Matt LaViolette, officiating.

Miss Lottie Dementer and Leon Gendron were the attendants.

For her wedding the bride chose a yellow summer suit with all white accessories. Red tea roses formed her corsage. A beige summer suit with red roses was worn by Miss Dementer for the occasion. White carnations with red tea roses formed her corsage.

A wedding supper for members of the immediate family was served at the bride's parental home.

The bride and groom both attended the local schools. The bride was employed as a checker at the Red Owl Store and the groom is employed at Harnischfeger's. They are making their home at 1119 Washington Ave., Escanaba.

Love Can Defeat Reds, Says Bishop

SINGAPORE (P)—If Christians in Southeast Asia wanted to defeat Communism they would have to "out-think, out-love and out-sacrifice the leaders who offered Communism," a Methodist bishop declared here.

Speaking at the annual conferences of the Methodist Church in Southeast Asia, Bishop R. L. Archer said:

"We should seek, not so much to undermine and overthrow the Communist way of life, as to pre-

Man, This Clock's Really Cuckoo

By RICHARD KLEINER

BROOKLYN, N. Y. —(NEA)—Around Coney Island these days, every man, woman and child is a clock watcher. That's because they've got a clock to watch that is a dilly, even for Brooklyn.

This is the Guinness Crazy Clock, or a reasonable facsimile thereof. The original is in England, where it was the hit of the Festival of Britain. A replica was built and dispatched Brooklynward as a good-will gesture, and this is the clock that is starting the mainsprings out of Brooklyn.

The Crazy Clock's craziest feature is its show. Every 15 minutes, it presents a four-minute theatrical performance. All sorts of things happen, including, but not limited to, the following:

An ostrich pops out of a chimney. A zookeeper springs out of a well and, for some reason, starts ringing a bell. The doors open and a bunch of toucans (fruit-eating birds of tropical America, family Ramphastidae) dance around a tree trunk. A fisherman leans out of a house, and proceeds to catch four fish, which swallow each other. Marionettes revolve around the top of the clock. A Swiss music box plays Swiss music.

After four minutes, everything stops—the ostrich goes back, ditto the zookeeper; the toucans cease dancing; the fisherman calls it a quarter-hour; the marionettes stop marionetting; and the music box calms itself.

For 11 minutes, all that happens is that time is kept. Then, off they go again. Dig that crazy clock.

The clock that will tour America cost $50,000 to build, and has an electrical engineer on 24-hour call. He's Philip Scherer, who went to London and watched while the replica was built. Scherer knows every mad quirk to the Crazy Clock's make-up.

And there's plenty of complicated insides to the two-ton time-keeper. There are 14 motors, for one thing. These control the operations of the ostrich, toucans, etc., through a series of cams on the main shaft.

The whole business is made out of aluminum and nylon, since it will mostly stand out-of-doors. It's 23 feet high, 14 feet long and six feet deep. A special trailer is being built, to haul it around the country so non-Brooklynites can have a look.

There's one more thing—it keeps pretty good time.

Briefly Told

Services Continue—A series of services being conducted at the First Baptist Church by the Ambassadors of Chicago continues tonight at 7:30 with Children's Night. As a special attraction little Miss Eagen, 4, Ferndale, Mich., will give a recitation on Jonah and the Whale. The Miller girls, Carol, Betty and Susie, will sing. The public is invited.

In This Corner

With Ray Crandall

A former Gladstone High School athlete and graduate of Michigan State College has himself a new coaching job in Grand Rapids. Bernard Olson recently accepted the position of football, basketball, baseball and track coach at Grand High School in Grand Rapids. He had a record of league-winning cage and grid teams at Sand Lake the past two years.

If you want to get a good look at Escanaba's future in baseball, visit the Escanaba Little League diamond this evening. The Jaycee Little League All Stars will be playing the stars of last year's graduates in the annual game, held to help raise funds for the tournament trip. The kids will be leaving for Stevens Point, Wis., and tournament action on July 30.

We expect the Cleveland Indians will be back to Escanaba next summer for their third annual tryout camp and school. Both scouts Nap Ross and Mike Mychko love the baseball potential in this city, and they are loud in praise of the men who are in charge of the well-organized programs here. We also look for the Indians to hire a representative here to keep in contact with the likely prospects during the long months between their annual visits.

Cynosure Wins Third Leg Of Cruising Race

A good west wind favored the three boats that completed the third leg of the Green Bay Cruising Race yesterday from Ephraim to Menominee with Cynosure IV placing first on a corrected time of 4 hours 58 minutes.

Venturon crossed the finish line first on elapsed time of 5 hours and 1 minute. Cynosure was second and Lucky Star, skippered by John Mitchell of Escanaba, third. Two boats, the Halcynon and Chelsea May, did not sail the third leg. Venturon, owned by H. J. MacNeil of Chicago, retained her point.

American League Race Closer Than National

By The Associated Press
Today, for the first time since May 17, the American League has a closer pennant race than the National League.

Brooklyn's steadily moving Dodgers lead Milwaukee by 5 1/2 games in the National. The New York Yankees have only a 4 1/2-game bulge over Chicago in the American.

The Dodgers took a big stride forward Wednesday night by outclassing Chicago in a double-header 9-3 and 11-1 as Milwaukee bowed to Philadelphia 6-3.

Lose Full Game
The Yankees frittered away a full game of their lead by losing to Cleveland 6-4 for the second straight night after the White Sox shaded Boston 1-0.

Since the Dodgers came home shortly before the All-Star Game they've won 10 of their last 11 games. The Yankees on the other hand have had their ups and downs.

Brooklyn combined excellent pitching with heavy hitting to humiliate the Cubs. Johnny Podres, a rookie left-hander, struck out 10 and gave up six hits in his second complete major league game. Veteran Carl Erskine allowed only four hits and also struck out 10.

The Dodgers combed Chicago pitching for 24 hits including two home runs by Gil Hodges, who drove in seven runs, and homers also by Carl Furillo and Duke Snider.

At Philadelphia the Phillies jumped on Warren Spahn for four runs in the first inning.

Large Crowd Sees Donkey Softball Game Last Night

Neisner's edged Anderson Brothers 3-2 in a donkey softball game played last night before a large crowd at Memorial Field diamond.

Spectators were treated to many laughs as the stubborn animals misbehaved in general throughout the game.

In an attractive preliminary clash, Dells edged White Birch 4-3 with hurler Joe Sullivan scoring the winning run for the Dells on a long fly to left field by Don Paulin. Paulin and Lloyd Lindstrom led Dells to a 10-hit attack off Leo Larfour. Sullivan turned in a five-hitter for the Dells.

Sullivan scored the clincher in the fourth inning, at which time Dells held a 4-1 lead over White Birch. But White Birch narrowed the count to 4-3 with a pair of runs in the fifth.

In another American League game Paper Mill defeated Hyde 14-3. Daily Press topped Kesslers' 13-12 in a National League clash.

Owners Balk At Plan To Shift Major Loop

NEW YORK (AP)—Realignment of baseball's major leagues to take in Kansas City, Los Angeles and San Francisco is strongly opposed by at least three owners.

The possible shift of several franchises to populous areas now supporting minor league ball has been a red-hot issue ever since the Braves were transferred from Boston to Milwaukee with marked increase in gate receipts and the American League refused the Browns permission to move to Baltimore.

Del Webb, co-owner of the New York Yankees, suggested at the recent major league meetings in Cincinnati that the American League transfer the Browns and the Philadelphia Athletics to Los Angeles and San Francisco.

Branch Rickey, general manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates, describes first baseman Preston Ward as "the key man" in the deal which sent Ralph Kiner to the Chicago Cubs.

Earlier this week the Sporting News, baseball publication, reported the Browns are due to leave St. Louis for Kansas City. Other reports had the Phillies bowing out of Philadelphia if the Athletics don't, with either Los Angeles or San Francisco as their destination.

To these reports came answers from owner-president Bob Carpenter of the Phillies; Roy Mack, executive vice president of the Athletics and Clark Griffith, president and owner of the Washington Senators.

"I'm here to stay," said Carpenter. "If Webb thinks the Pacific Coast is such a swell place to have a ball club, let him move his own club out there."

Rams May Try Out Place-Kick Punter

REDLANDS, Calif. (AP)—The Los Angeles Rams are experimenting with "Bootin' Ben" Agajanian as a place-kicking punter.

Coach Hampton Pool thinks Agajanian might be able to put other National League backs in the coffin corner with his long place kicks, instead of relying on the usual punting.

The Rams are trying to make up for the loss of their No. 1 punter, Bob Waterfield, who has retired.

runs in the first inning and the Braves couldn't catch up. The opening attack featured a two-run homer by Granny Hamner.

The Indians trailed the Yankees by three runs after three innings, then got to Whitey Ford for a pair in the fourth on a home run by Joe Tipton and took the lead in the fifth on a homer by Dale Mitchell and doubles by Al Rosen and Larry Doby.

The story at Chicago was almost all pitching as Virgil Trucks scattered four hits and let only one runner get as far as second. Mel Parnell, ace of the Boston staff, hurled one of his best games too, but one hit, a triple by Chico Carrasquel to open the fifth inning, ruined him. Chico hung on third while Trucks grounded out but he

Iron Mountain Car Tops Racing Field

Car No. 116, owned by Hector Campbell of Iron Mountain, has just about established the fact that it is the best stock car in this area of the Upper Peninsula.

Car 116 has accumulated 259 points to continue to hold the lead in the field of 63 stock cars that have raced here since the opening of the season.

In second place in the point standing is Bob Higgins' 1-B of Marquette with 228 points.

Next in line are two cars owned by John Pieropon of Spalding. No. 33, driven by Pieropon, has 186, and No. 34 driven by Joe Blazek of Escanaba has 183.

Other leading point winners are Joe Gavan of Iron Mountain, Len Fluette of Marquette, Red Lauscher of Escanaba, Frank Honkala of Ishpeming and Lloyd Brown of Manistiquie.

Another large field is expected for Saturday night's races. Time trials will begin at 8 with the first of the heat races starting at 9.

Rotary Tops Kiwanis 8-5 In Little League

Rotary collected eight solid base hits and Mammy Bourdeau turned in a sparkling relief pitching performance to defeat Kiwanis 8-5 in Little League play last night.

Bourdeau came in for Dick Bourdeau in the fourth with the bases loaded and one out, and held Kiwanis hitless and runless for the remainder of the game.

Dagenais went the route for Kiwanis and didn't issue a walk but was hit hard. Kiwanis combined their three hits with Dick Bourdeau's wildness to score their runs.

Yesterday's Stars

By The Associated Press
Batting — Gil Hodges, Brooklyn Dodgers, hit two home runs and drove in seven runs in Brooklyn's twin triumphs over Chicago.

Pitching — Virgil Trucks, Chicago White Sox, gave up only four singles and allowed only one runner as far as second in winning his seventh straight game for Chicago 1-0 over Boston.

Billy Schafer Mound Star With Army Team

Billy Schafer, formerly of Nahma and an ex-hurler for Perronville in the Tri County Baseball League, is setting a spectacular early pace in Army baseball circles in England.

Schafer has tossed four wins against one loss for his Anti-Aircraft base team in Army competition this season and has piled up a spectacular strikeout record in the process.

In 34 innings on the hill, Schafer has fanned 69 batters, a record of two strikeouts per inning. He has allowed only 10 base hits and has issued but five bases on balls.

Schafer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Schafer Sr., now residing in Milwaukee, Wis. He is 22 years old, stands 5-11 and weighs 185 pounds.

Billy attracted the attention of major league scouts several years ago and in 1952 went to spring training with the Boston Braves of the National League (now the Milwaukee Braves). He saw action with a Braves farm club in the 1952 season before entering the service last August.

AFL Little Bigger Team Nears Pennant With 3-2 Victory

The AFL team moved to a commanding position in the Little Bigger League pennant race last night by edging the Elks 3-2 on a one-hit pitching performance by Don Trotter.

Trotter bested Bob Hansen, Elks hurler, in a tight mound duel. Hansen allowed only three hits and fanned 11. Trotter struck out eight.

Jack Carlson drove in all three runs for the winners. He homered with Dan Rousseau on base in the first inning and drove in the deciding run with a hit in the sixth.

The lone hit off Trotter was a single by Bud Bessenon.

The Delta Hardware-Insurance Association game slated tonight has been postponed until the first week in August.

Leaders Defeated In American Association

(By The Associated Press)
League-leading Indianapolis and second place Toledo both lost Wednesday night while Louisville, in third place, moved to within four games of the American Association pacesetters.

Louisville broke loose with a three-run seventh inning to drown Indianapolis 5-3.

Toledo, remaining 1 1/2 games behind the Indians, was trimmed by Kansas City 5-3 as the Blues scored four times in the first inning. Rookie Rip Coleman scattered seven hits to win.

Bob Darnell hurled a seven hitter to give St. Paul a 5-0 decision over Columbus.

Tiger's Future Seems Brighter

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP)—Joe Ziegler, general manager of the Detroit Tigers' key farm club, looked over his crop of young ball players today and predicted better days for the Tigers.

"We're 'toughing' it out at Detroit this year," Ziegler said. "We're building for next year—and 1955."

Ziegler has some right to speak. His Buffalo Bisons are raising Cain in the International League. They held first place today, 1 1/2 games ahead of the Montreal Royals, while the parent Tigers sit in the American League cellar.

"When I was with the St. Louis Cardinals' chain, we had more players," Ziegler said, "but at no time did we have more prospects than the Detroit system today."

Ziegler was with the Cards from 1935 to 1942.

"We're looking for quality, not quantity," he said.

"Here at Buffalo, we have Milt Jordan, Bill Tuttle, Frank Lary, Rufus Crawford and Paul Foytack—all youngsters. They're playing Triple A ball and helping the club."

Jordan, 25, a righthanded pitcher from Mineral Springs, Pa., is the Bisons' stopper. His record is 11-1.

Crawford, 25, of Washington, D. C., and Tuttle, 24, of Elwood, Ill., are the hottest defensive outfielders to play here since Johnny Groth patrolled centerfield in 1948.

Lary and Foytack are two more righthanded pitchers. Lary, 22, of Tusculoosa, Ala., has 9 wins and 7 losses. Foytack, 22, of Scranton, Pa., has 7 wins and 3 losses.

Great Lakes Golf Tournament Field Will Be Whittled

WAUKEGAN, Ill. (AP)—Two rounds of match play today will slice the Great Lakes Amateur Golf tournament to eight survivors and among the favorites to make it are the co-medalists.

They are Ralph Krefting of Chicago, 36-year-old accountant, and Art Gee of Highland Ind., 40-year-old oil refinery worker. Both won first round matches Wednesday.

Quarter and semi-final matches will be played Friday and the 36 hole finals Saturday.

Krefting advanced to the second round with a 20th hole victory over Frank Keck of Champaign, a University of Illinois senior. Krefting was two-down at the turn and rallied with birdies on the 13th and 17th to draw even. They halved the 19th and Krefting won on the 20th with a 15 foot birdie putt.

Gee eliminated Charles Whyte, Waukegan attorney, 2 and 1.

Among others advancing to the second round were John Mislan, Gary, Ind., the 1952 runner-up; Lew Bridge, Pekin, Ill.; Jim Finley, Decatur, Ill.; Dante Vicini, Ottawa, Ill.; Bob Cleveland, Crown Point, Ind. and Tony Caruso of Ottawa.

Alaska's Volcanoes May Provide 'Awning' To Make Our Summer Cooler ---

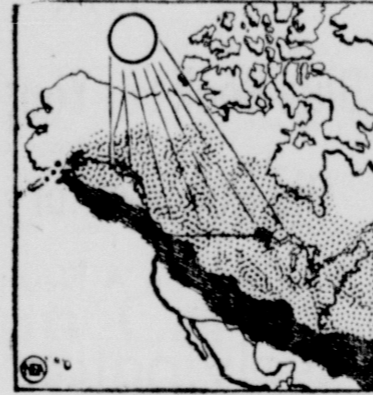

Violent eruptions from Mt. Trident (shown above) and two other Alaskan Mountains, Mt. Magick and Mt. Spurr, covered an area 500 miles square with volcanic debris, that ...

... caused "snowstorms" of ash which blacked out Anchorage, 80 miles from the nearest volcano. This car is shown covered with the ash. Anchorage residents wore dust masks for protection.

Clouds of volcanic ash and smoke from the recent eruptions of Mounts Trident, Magick and Spurr in Alaska may produce cooler weather in eastern U. S. This theory is advanced by Dr. Harry Wexler, chief of the Science Services Division of the U. S. Weather Bureau in Washington. The volcanic clouds blanketed an area 500 miles square. The ash, carried thousands of miles on prevailing winds, acts as an insulating "awning" between the sun and the earth. Newsmap below shows how theoretical "awning" could drift over Canada and eastern U. S.

Air Attacks Again Feared By Germany

By WILLY M. HORBACH

BONN, Germany—The West Germans are rebuilding the air raid shelters demolished by the Allies. The huge concrete shelters, capable of holding thousands, and even the small cellar shelters in private houses were ordered "demilitarized." Now it has been officially suggested that all new buildings should have reinforced bomb shelters in the basement.

Interior Ministry officials are preparing a full-scale civil defense scheme, training of air raid wardens and establishment of a nation-wide warning system. A 60,000-strong cadre of technicians, doctors, drivers, engineers and others is already at work. This force will be doubled by next year.

But German officials are worried about the lack of preparation for atomic warfare. They have studied published non-secret American data, but everything is "pale theory," as one official put it.

"We badly need special equipment, like Geiger counters, to train our men. Then we need foreign instructors, preferably Americans, who are in the atomic know-how," a responsible German said.

"We know that those large community shelters for air raids as they were built in Germany in the last war will be impractical. They cost too much. Hiroshima and Nagasaki have proven that small deep trenches are almost the best shelter there is. The trench in every backyard is what is going to save the German population in an atomic war.

Prayers Before Meals Encouraged

DALLAS, Tex. (P)—The Texas Restaurant Association is campaigning for prayers before meals. Members decided at their meeting here to remind diners in their restaurants to say grace before eating by placing small cardboard signs on each table, giving Catholic, Protestant and Jewish prayers.

Free Food Irks Reds In Berlin

By DAN DE LUCE

BERLIN (P)—A million packages of free Western food threw East Germany's Communist rulers into a frenzy Wednesday.

Soviet High Commissioner Vladimir Semenov, in a bristling diplomatic note, called the mammoth relief program a U. S. plot to "enlist Fascist hirelings and criminal elements" for a new anti-Red revolt in the Russian zone.

He demanded that U. S. High Commissioner James B. Conant immediately stop food gifts to hungry East Germans because these were "illegal and incompatible with the elementary demands of maintaining public order."

But in West Berlin, thousands of workers were set to wrapping the million-fold packages of foodstuffs for delivery on the Iron Curtain border here beginning next Monday.

The supplies came from a West German government reserve maintained in this isolated city since 1949 to protect it against a new Russian blockade. The reserve will be replenished by donations from the United States, where President Eisenhower offered 15 million dollars worth of free food to hungry East Germany on July 10 and stuck by it after Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov denounced the offer as "a clumsy propaganda maneuver."

More Churches In Mexico Than There Are Gas Stations

MEXICO CITY (P)—There are ten times more churches than service stations in Mexico. Catholic church officials say there are approximately 16,000 Catholic churches, plus 710 of other faiths, scattered over the nation.

Pemex, which handles all Mexico's petroleum business, says there are 1,599 service stations—plenty for all local and tourist trade. It contends there is no shortage of such gasoline and oil outlets. But stations are not grouped four to a crossroads as in many American cities.

Cholula with a population of around 10,000 has 280 churches. In the immediate area there are 365, one for each day of the year. The state of Puebla, in which Cholula is located, has 1,898. Mexico City has 311 Catholic churches, and is building an estimated 25 or 30 more.

Many of the new churches are a radical architectural departure from the traditional cathedral with its spires and turrets. Modernism is the trend, and some of the new edifices might remind visiting Americans of the more ornate all-glass supermarkets.

The Gurkhas, residents of Nepal, have furnished first class fighting men for British armies for generations.

Demand For Money Continues To Grow; Supply Tightens Up

Business mirror
By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (P)—The demand for money continues to grow—and the supply is tightening up again.

Bankers expect demand for credit and new capital to reach new heights in a few more weeks. And they report that the easing in the money supply which came in June after the Federal Reserve Board lowered bank reserve requirements has been soaked up as a result of the recent U. S. Treasury borrowing of about six billion dollars.

Plants Expand

Banks were forced to set up reserve balances to support their subscriptions to the new issue. Money became tight again.

The financial story, as the Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland sees it, is the "very strong current and prospective demand for credit, from both public and private borrowers." This tends "to outrun a large supply of savings available for investment."

The U. S. Treasury isn't the only one looking for more cash these days. The Cleveland bank forecasts that mortgage debt may expand this year by nine billion dollars. A similar expansion in mortgage debt incurred in excess of repayments took place in 1952.

The Department of Commerce says the demand for mortgage money continues high, even though there was some slackening off in new home starts in May and June.

Business firms have told the department they plan to spend a record amount this summer and fall in expanding their plants and buying new equipment.

Profit statements now coming in indicate that business savings—shown in depreciation allowances and retained earnings—are still high. This will help finance the plant expansion. But more new capital will also be needed.

In the last three months corporations have raised about 2½ billion dollars in cash by selling securities, the Commerce Department reports. The total raised that way in all of 1952 was a little more than eight billion dollars.

Higher interest rates in recent months have discouraged some corporations from borrowing. But apparently most expansion plans are still going through on schedule.

Bank loans to business are due for their seasonal rise in the coming weeks. The rise will start from a very high level, since loans have fallen much less than normal during the late spring and early summer. With a large demand anticipated, bankers see little chance of interest rates weakening.
